Knitting on the Road Runner

We are planning a trip to Albuquerque and back for Jan. 21, leaving early morning, getting a snack near the station, and returning in time to open the shop at 10:00. Knitting all the way, of course.

Albuquerque people are welcome to meet up with us to ride back and see how very close Looking Glass is to the stop.

What a great way to celebrate the new year, the rail system, and public knitting!

Details will follow; check the website or give us a call.
